

TIM RALPHS, STORYTELLER

PRESENTS A NIGHT OF URBAN DEVILRY

AUGUST 2ND - 24TH 9:50PM
PAY WHAT YOU THINK THE DEVIL IS DUE

THE BANSHÉE LABYRINTH
SCOTLAND'S MOST HAUNTED PUB

An innovative re-imagining of old Devil stories stitched into a new skin, spanning supermarket stalls, urban sprawls, mad drunken preachers and widows' sons.

Darkly humorous with disturbing turns.

TIM RALPHS

comes to the Edinburgh Fringe Festival for the first time in 2014 with Rebranding Beelzebub — an hour of traditional folk tales framed with absurd confessions and razor sharp wit.

A British Award for Storytelling Excellence winner in 2012, Tim is a Crick Crack Club featured teller and has performed everywhere from the Soho Theatre to the Bargehouse Festival of Fairytales to the Barbican Pit to late night firesides at Larmer Tree Festival.

"Words that are applied glibly to other performers — such as brave, experimental and innovative — apply truly to Tim Ralphs. An imagination and talent such as Ralphs, spotlights storytelling as a thoroughly modern performance art form."

—Nell Phoenix, Story Nights Torriano
